European V-Label use

We found out that you use the registered trade-mark «V-Label»:

This label can only be used from licensees with a valid certificate.

Because you are not a licensee, your use is illegal.

If you will still use the label in the future, we have to take legal action against your company.

But first we will give you the chance to solve this problem with one of the 2 possibilities:

1. Remove the V-label from all your products and your homepage until 1 October 2016
2. Certify your products

If we don't get any reaction from you until 1 October 2016, we will forward this case to our lawyer.

Best regards,

Renato Pichler
CEO V-Label GmbH
